

Human Subjects Research at California Baptist University

SEPTEMBER 2013

GENERAL RULE

Any and all research involving human participants conducted by CBU faculty, staff, and/or students, inside or outside the classroom (excluding student research conducted to complete requirements in a specific course; see Page 4 in the Faculty and Student IRB Handbook), and/or anyone conducting research identified in any way with or at the University, must seek appropriate approval from the CBU Institutional Review Board (IRB). The various conditions and processes defining “appropriate approval” are set forth in the IRB handbook.

The Faculty and Student IRB Handbook and Student Classroom Research Policy are available under “Inst Research” tab, IRB page, in InsideCBU.