

Book Vouchers

Book vouchers allow students to charge their student account for the cost of their Campus Bookstore purchases. Only students with expected excess financial aid, usually from loan monies, may be eligible for a book voucher.

Book voucher eligibility may vary based on changes to direct costs and/or to comply with federal, state and university regulations and policies. Eligible students may stop by the Student Accounts Office to pick up a book voucher to be used in the Campus Bookstore.